

Home page

Milk, driver of development

Milk 2019

12-13 June 2019 • Dakar, Senegal

Hôtel NGor Diarama, Dakar, Sénégal

Tuesday 11 June 2019
15:00-	Payment for registration on site
18:00
Wednesday 12 June 2019 - Session "West Africa"
8:00-9:00	Registration
9:00-	Welcome address from ISRA, Agreenium and FAO
10:00	Official Opening of the meeting by Senegalese Livestock Minister Welcome address from the Organization Committee (C. Corniaux, CIRAD/PPZS, Senegal)
10:00-	Opening and tour of Exhibition on "Dairy innovations"
11:00	Introduced by Famara Sarr (Chef de la Division de la Promotion des Industries laitières, apicoles et avicoles– DIREL, Senegal) and Nicolas Rousseau (Lactimad, France) Coffee-break
Session 1: Diverse perspectives on dairy development in West Africa
Chairwoman : Astou Diao Camara (ISRA, PPZS, Sénégal)
11:00-	Dairy world and place of West Africa in international trade
11:20	Vincent Chatellier, INRA, France
11:20-	The ECOWAS Regional Milk Initiative ("Offensive Lait CEDEAO")
11:40	Bio Goura Soule, CEDEAO, Nigéria
11:40-	« Mon lait est local » Campaign
12:00	Hindatou Amadou, APSS, Burkina Faso

12:00-12:20	Multi-services peasant milk collection centers in Niger: the missing link to the development of local dairy value chains in West Africa Aly Dandakoye, IRAM, Niger
12:20-13:00	Interaction with participants
13:00-14:30	Lunch / Poster session
suite Session 1: Diverse perspectives on dairy development in West Africa
Chairman: Christian Dovonou (VSF-B, Burkina) – Report: Benoit DeWaegeneer (Oxfam, Belgique)
14:30-14:50	Drivers for the ecological intensification of milk production systems in west Burkina Faso Eric Vall, CIRAD, France
14:50-15:10	Development of Dairy value chain: the “Laiterie du Berger” case in Senegal Arona Diaw, LDB, Sénégal
15:10-16:30	Round Table: Increasing milk collection in West Africa: drivers and impacts? with the participation of: Bagoré Bathily (Laiterie du Berger), Alain Sy Traoré (CEDEAO), Serge Aubague (CARE Dk), Jean-Marc Gravellini (Alliance Sahel), Hindatou Amadou (APESS) – Animation by Guillaume Thibault (correspondant RFI au Sénégal)
16:30-18:00	Posters Session / Exhibition on “Dairy Innovations” Posters Session 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Dairy farming in the peri-urban area of Dakar: situation and future of the sector. Koki Ba, UGB, Senegal > Improvement of the productivity and competitiveness of local milk au Senegal. Ousmane Ndiaye, Fenafils, Senegal. > Stables promotion to strengthen the resilience of dairy farms in a context of climate change in West Africa. Ayao Missohou, EISMV, Senegal > What is Key for Improving the Competitiveness of Local Milk Value Chains? A Synthesis of Evidence from Three Studies in Mali. Ryan Vroegindewey, Michigan State University, USA
18:30	Cocktail
Thursday 13 June 2019
Session 2: Technical and organizational issues for milk collection
Chairman : Malick Faye (FAO) – Report : Elsa Vasseur (Univ MCGill, Canada)
8:45-9:05	Management challenges of raw milk collection to ensure the supply of dairy products in developing countries Mohamed Taher Sraïri, IAV Hassan II, Rabat, Maroc

9:05-9:25	Private and public costs & benefits and lessons learned from a Quality Based Milk Payment pilot in Kenya Asaah Ndambi, Wageningen University, Pays-Bas Piloting a Quality Based Milk Payment System (QBMPs) in Kenya Gerard Oosterwijk, Happy Cow, Kenya
9:25-9:35	The success story of a quality based milk payment system in Mbarara, Ouganda Annabelle Daburon, Wageningen University, Pays-Bas
9:35-9:45	Social networks in the local dairy value chain in the peanut basin Walter Ossebi, EISMV, Sénégal
9:45-9:55	The West Africa milk innovation platforms: strengths and weaknesses Cécile Broutin, GRET, France
9:55-10:00	Posters Flash presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Dairy value chain in Velingara (Casamance). Mégné Ndé et al., AVSF, Senegal > Barriers to the formalization of the informal dairy sector in Algeria, investigation with farmers in the Bejaia region . K. Bellil et al., Algérie
10:00-10:30	Interaction with participants
10:30-11:00	Coffee break / Poster / Exhibition on “Dairy Innovations” Posters Session 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Local milk: a tool for socio-economic development. VSF International Experience in West Africa. M. Gamorasca et al. VSF International > Socio-economic structure and technological options for milk collection in the dairy basin of Korhogo (Ivory Coast). A.R. Sanhoun et al., Côte d’Ivoire
Session 3: Diversity of dairy products, techniques, usages and markets
Chairwoman: Azara Sanogo (Oxfam, Burkina Faso) – Report: Bernard Faye (France)
11:00-11:20	Globalization and the world-wise diversity of milk products: Are we loosing our tradition? Guillaume Duteurtre, Cirad, France
11:20-11:30	Camel cheese: a technical and cultural revolution? Gaukhar Konuspayeva, Kazakhstan
11:30-11:40	Characterization of fermented cow milk in Senegal B. Musabyemariya, EISMV, Sénégal
11:40-11:50	Characterization and conservation of bacterial diversity of a breton traditional fermented milk (Gwell) linked to local cow breed (Bretonne Pie Noir) Florence Valence, INRA, Rennes, France
11:50-12:00	Where is malian milk? Processing and marketing of dairy products in Bamako, Mali Jennifer Provost, Georg-August University Goettingen. Allemagne
12:00-12:10	Study of consumption and distribution of dairy products in Mali, Niger and Senegal de 2014 Marie-Christine Goudiaby, Gret, Dakar, Sénégal
	Poster Flash Presentation

12:10-12:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Efficient method for camel milk collection and transportation. Drici H., Université de Tamanrasset, Algérie > Milk quality along the dairy chain for a safe and sustainable milk. L. Abdennebi-Najar et al., IDELE, France
12:15-12:45	Interaction with participants
12:45-14:00	Lunch / Posters / Exhibition on “Dairy Innovations” Posters Session 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Preservation and valorization of local goat populations in the Mediterranean basin and optimization of goat cheese-making processes. Christelle Cebo ou Kafia Mohammedi, INRA, Jouy-en-Josas, France > Biological resources centers dedicated to the microorganisms of food for the preservation and enhancement of microbial diversity associated with fermented dairy products. F. Valence et al, INRA France > Microbiological quality of local milk in the Region areas of Kaolack and Kaffrine, Senegal. M. Kalandi et al., EISMV Dakar > Standard operating procedures (SOP) for the analysis of raw milk quality in collection and distribution centers MDB (Malagasy Dairy Board) in Madagascar. N. Rousseau, Lactimad, France. > Assessment of milking procedure in a large dairy farm in Morocco. W. Baaddi et al., IAV Hassan II Maroc > Teats characterization in a large dairy farm in Morocco. W. Baadi et al., IAV Hassan II, Maroc
Session 4: Women and vulnerable actors place in the transformation of production systems and dairy value chains
Chairwoman: Nathalie Le-Marre (INRA, France), Report: Serge Aubague (CARE Danemark)
14:00-14:20	Reducing gender gaps in the dairy sector through gender-sensitive business services Alejandra Safa Barraza, FAO, Rome, Italy
14:20-14:30	Socio-economic impact of the dairy processing on pastoral households in Burkina Faso: gender approach René Milligo, Pasmep, Burkina Faso
14:30-14:40	The commodification of camel milk and 'suburbanization' of camel livestock: what development model Bernard Faye, France
14:40-14:45	Posters Flash Presentation
14:45-15:20	Interaction with participants
Coffee break / poster / Exhibition on “Dairy Innovations”

15:20- 15:30	Posters Session 4 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Women's place in the local raw dairy in the suburban basin of Niamey. Aly Dandakoye, Karkara, Niamey, Niger > The marketing of camel milk: an opportunity for the herders of Ouargla (South East, Algeria). Abdelkader Adamou, Université Kasdi Merbah Ouargla, Algérie > Local milk: valorisation and appropriation. F. A. Kane, UCAD Senegal
Session 5: Sustainable development of the local dairy chain in the context of globalization
Chairman: Johanés Agbahey (GIZ, Allemagne) – Report: Saïd Bouhallab (INRA, France)
15:30- 15:50	Milky Way to Development: Creating Market-driven Sustainable Growth in the Dairy Value Chain – Nigeria Proof of Concept Amadou Bocoum, Arla, Danemark
15:50- 16:00	Grameen Credit Agricole Foundation: 10 years of actions for inclusive finance, social entrepreneurship and strengthen of agricultural local value chains Jonathan Michaud, Crédit Agricole Franche-Comté, Kossam SDE
16:00- 16:10	The multinational dairy companies in West Africa: hope or disappointment for breeders? Christian Corniaux, CIRAD, Sénégal
16:10- 16:20	Fat filled dairy powder: new step in the dairy products trade between the EU and West Africa François Graas, SOS Faim, Bruxelles, Belgique
16:20- 16:30	Trade and tax policies and Milk value-chains in West Africa Laurent Levard, GRET, France
16:30- 16:35	Poster Flash presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > The coherence of EU policies for development: A major issue for the local dairy chain in West Africa. Pascal Erard, CFSI, France
16:35- 17:00	Interaction with participants Posters Session 5 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Pastoralism in the world: that pastoralism is there, here and elsewhere. Raffin Y., France > European milk agricultural policy, consequences in Europe and Western Africa. Collin P., AVSF, France
17:00- 17:30	Conclusion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Tribute to the network initiators: Sylvie Lortal (ex INRA, France) and Bernard Faye (ex CIRAD, France). C. Corniaux, CIRAD, Senegal >

	Synthesis of the Scientific Committee. Taher Sraïri – Univ Rabat, Maroc - and G. Duteurtre – CIRAD, France, representatives of the Scientific Committee > Closure of the Symposium by the DG of ISRA (Senegal)
17:30	Closing of the Exhibition on « Dairy Innovations »

Writing: Rédacteur

Creation date: 23 May 2018

Update: 18 June 2019